

HOW DO I BECOME A LEGACY CIRCLE MEMBER?

Consult with your professional advisor and request that Canyonlands Field Institute be included as a beneficiary in your estate plan. Complete the Legacy Circle Declaration of Intention form and return it to CFI. You will receive membership recognition and invitations to special events for Legacy Circle members unless you wish to remain anonymous.

“Supporting an organization that upholds a caring attitude and respect for the outdoors is important to me. I had to put CFI on the top of my list.”

– Mary Kohler, North Bennington, VT has included Canyonlands Field Institute in her will

LEGACY CIRCLE

Canyonlands Field Institute's Legacy Circle

is a network of supporters who have made a lasting commitment to environmental education: those who have chosen to support CFI's mission by making a life-income gift or by naming Canyonlands Field Institute as a beneficiary in their estate plans. These gifts make an enduring impact by guiding the next generation of environmental leaders, teachers, and parents.

Since 1984, CFI has worked towards its mission to inspire care of wild places and renew the human spirit by providing quality outdoor education on the Colorado Plateau for schools, youth, adults, and families.

Legacy Circle members believe in CFI's fiscal management to effectively shape tomorrow's leaders. All unrestricted charitable gifts to CFI are directed where they are needed most to further its mission through outdoor education. If you would like to make a gift designated to a specific purpose, please contact us first to ensure that we can meet your wishes.

Canyonlands Field Institute is a tax exempt 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. As such, it is a qualified charity, and your life-income gifts are exempt from all federal gift tax limits. There may also be tax benefits to your Estate when you name Canyonlands Field Institute as a beneficiary.

Consult your professional advisor for more information about planned giving options, some of which may include:

Specific Bequest: A specific amount of money – or other asset – you wish to leave CFI.

Residuary Bequest: This type of bequest is honored after all other bequests have been made, and all debts, expenses, and taxes have been paid.

Contingent Bequest: This type of bequest is fulfilled if certain conditions are met. For example, if your primary beneficiary does not survive you, you can indicate your next choice through a contingent designation.

In consultation with your professional advisor, you may make these bequests by updating your will or trust, or simply by naming Canyonlands Field Institute as a beneficiary (primary or contingency) on your cash and savings accounts, brokerage and stock accounts, annuities, retirement plans and life insurance policies.

For purposes of beneficiary designations, please use the following information:
Canyonlands Field Institute; PO Box 68,
Moab UT 84532; EIN 87-0418027
